Please pay attention to the following instructions when joining the lectures.

- The lectures, tutorials and lab sessions are conducted online through zoom until further notice.

- You may create a zoom account by visiting https://zoom.us/ (its free to create a basic account) unless you already have an account.

- Please join the correct zoom session for each module based on the table given below. The same zoom session will be used every week for the respective modules.

- If there are any changes the students will be informed about those changes by the respective module lecture during the lectures.

- Please use your name as the zoom guest name/username when joining the sessions.

    o Example: A student with the name Sean.Y. Lee when joining the zoom session, the guest name/ username can be Sean Lee

- Please keep your microphone muted all the time, unless otherwise the lecturer asks you a question or you have a question to ask and clarify.

- Please keep your video off all the time during the classes, unless otherwise the lecturer specifically asked you to switch it on.

- Please use the Meeting Room's Chat option strictly for asking questions/ answering questions related to the lesson or to communicate with the lecturer during a class. Do not use it for personal/private conversations with the other students who have joined the session.
